“ Along with several colleagues from our Diocese, I attended the 2018 Religious Education Congress in Los Angeles with the GPBS tour.
I have heard about the Congress for many years and was pleased to finally get a chance to attend. It was a much better experience personally and professionally than I had even anticipated. The Congress is an example of the Catholic Church in all its wonderful diversity.
The range, quality, and calibre of the workshop presenters were amazing. The variety of religious goods and services on display was quite extraordinary. I would strongly recommend the Congress to any teacher of religious education. ”

Dan McMahon, Principal, Shalom College, Bundaberg
