

teen spirit

Connecting and engaging young people through music in Australian Catholic schools!

A contemporary and engaging experience of liturgical music making, giving young people an encounter with Christ and each other... while having fun at the same time!

But Philip said, "Come and see". John 1:46

Teen Spirit will feature Ian Callanan, Irish liturgical composer, pastoral musician, and workshop facilitator working alongside students and teachers in Catholic schools.

The program will be supported by the GPBS Mission & Ministry Team in conjunction with local networks in the various school communities where Teen Spirit is scheduled.

*Philip went and found Nathanael and told him, “We’ve found the One Moses wrote about of in the Law, the One preached by the prophets. It’s Jesus, Joseph and Mary’s son, the one from Nazareth!”
Nathanael said, “Nazareth? You’ve got to be kidding”.
But Philip said, “Come and see”. John 1:45–46*

Teen Spirit will take YOUR students and those who mentor them, on an exciting journey to explore the endless possibilities for creating music for liturgy that is contemporary, life-giving and youth-friendly. Emphasis will focus on the power of music and song to involve young people in a dynamic music ministry that explores everyone’s gifts and talents.

Open the hearts and minds of the young people in YOUR school with a great selection of theologically sound and engaging contemporary Catholic songs that will awaken the way you gather, celebrate and mission forth as disciples.

Teen Spirit isn’t just a process for learning new music/songs, but a holistic approach to involving YOUR students, working together and discovering the many and varied ways of creating effective prayer, liturgy and ritual in Catholic schools.

Teen Spirit will take YOUR liturgy and music to a new level... come and see!
